Every week we honor a child in the Capital Region who earns the title "Kid of the Week." This week, that honor goes to 11-year-old Azurah Bertrand of Saratoga.

Azurah, like many kids his age, has a love for video games. However, unlike many of his peers, Azurah spends every Saturday sharing his favorite past time with a 16-year-old boy with muscular dystrophy.

Matt lives at Northwoods of Niskayuna Rehab Center, which is two hours away from his family. So every week for the last year and a half, Azurah has gone to the center to play video games with Matt. The weekly tradition has become the highlight of Matt's week.
